

Avcorp Industries Inc. (TSX:AVP) designs and builds major airframe structures for some of the world's most respected aircraft companies, including Boeing, Bombardier, and Cessna. With 50 years of experience, more than 600 skilled employees and a 300,000 square foot facility near Vancouver, Canada, the Company's depth and breadth of capabilities are unique in the aerospace industry for a company of its size. Avcorp is a Canadian public company traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

AIRCRAFT PARTS PAINTER

Reporting to the Manager, Paint & Refinishing, the Aircraft Parts Painter is responsible for the following.

Responsibilities

- Ensure the proper handling and maintenance of their painting equipment by checking nozzles for damage, conducting fluid check prior to shift.
- Paint parts as per production schedule to the required specifications using the established fluid and air pressure for guns; check and measure parts before and after paint application to ensure quality specifications are achieved.
- Knowledge of safety equipment regarding the chemicals used in the area.

Qualifications

- A minimum of secondary school graduation diploma or equivalent
- Possession of a BC or Interprovincial journeyman designation as an Industrial Painter or Automotive Painter an asset
- Knowledge of paint applications is mandatory
- Previous experience as spray painter and/or paint technician in an industrial environment is a definite asset
- Ability to read, analyze, and interpret various manuals, procedures, blueprints, instructions and graphs

Avcorp offers a competitive compensation and benefit package, while fostering equal opportunity employment. Please email resumes to recruiting@avcorp.com and insert Painter in the subject line. We thank all applicants in advance but advise that only those under consideration will be contacted.